

C. OF C. RETAIL BRANCH FORMING

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night approved the form of by-laws for the organization of the retail branch of the Chamber of Commerce recently drafted by a special committee of retailers of which Robin Stelle, C. H. Lavin, S. E. Elghmey, C. E. Wonder, J. H. Gregory, T. A. Bennett, W. H. Rudderham, E. F. Flanagan, Frank Forman, V. A. Gorman were members.

The purpose of the new by-laws and more definite and complete organization of the retail branch of the Chamber of Commerce is to secure an organization of the chamber's retail members with its own officers selected by the retail members and so formed as to function continuously and effectively in behalf of the promotion of Kingston's retail trade.

This organization is the outgrowth of the work done by the retail trade committee including such notable trade events as Dress-Up Week and other important activities.

The by-laws as adopted provide that all members of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce who are engaged in retail trade in the City of Kingston and vicinity are members of the retail branch of the Chamber of Commerce.

The retail branch is to meet on the first Wednesday of each month at 8 o'clock and is to have as its administrative body an executive council of several members elected by vote of all retailers holding membership in the Chamber of Commerce.

This council will elect a president, vice-president, treasurer and recording secretary of the retail branch.

The retail branch will have full independence and control of all matters relating solely to retail trade.

The by-laws adopted are along the line of successful experience in handling the retail work of Chambers of Commerce in Albany, Troy and many other cities. It is believed that a large extension of the retail activities of the Chamber of Commerce bringing about a notable increase of retail trade will result from the activities of the retail branch under the more complete organization which it now assumes.

On Tuesday evening, November 30, and Wednesday evening, December 1, organizations and individuals interested in the welfare of Kingston's boys will meet for conference at the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club.

Invitations will be sent to boys' work organizations, to churches and fraternal organizations, to employers and industrial workers, to public officials and to all members of the Chamber of Commerce and the public as well. Each organization will be asked to send three delegates.

The joint committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club, the Rev. Frank B. Seelye, chairman, yesterday mapped out the plan of the conference and made preliminary arrangements with respect to the program.

The slogan of the conference will be "Extension, Co-operation and Coordination of Work for the Boys of Kingston."

JAPANESE TO CONTINUE PROTEST

Tokio (by mail).—"Keep up the protest" is the heading in an editorial of the Yoruichi of Tokio. And the general tone of the Japanese press is one in keeping up the protest indefinitely. While the beginning of the Sunday school convention has changed the leads of most of the editorials here the general sentiment down deep in the body of the articles is usually brought back to the never-ending question of America and Japan. The tone of the press has quieted somewhat, but the daily mention of war and the need to fight it is the only solution continues.

"We don't want to fight," reads the heading on a leading editorial in the Kokumin, the extremely bitter anti-American newspaper of Tokio. Then the writer says:

"Japan does not want to fight America for the California issue. War does not help solve the problem."

"But does America not want to fight?" Dr. Elliot, president emeritus of Harvard University, reproduces the opinions of the American soldiers and sailors who he saw in Japan and China, when he visited them eight years ago, their opinion being that the earlier the American-Japanese war the better for America, and adds that the only American soldier or sailor who did not subscribe to this opinion was the commander of the Oriental Squadron.

"Japan does not want war. Does America really not want to fight?" The Americans in California will have settled the California question, temporarily at least, when this letter reaches America. There will still remain the trouble of Japan right here in the Orient. The Sunday school convention in Tokio has accentuated the real feeling that exists between the two peoples and the Tokio Asahi has a word to say regarding the refusal of the Chinese and Koreans to come to Tokio and "talk it over."

"If the Koreans and Chinese are dissatisfied with Japan's policy," says the Asahi, "and if they desire to make justice prevail in Oriental countries, why should they not talk the matter over with Japanese Christians? It is regrettable that these delegates lacked the courage to attend such an international meeting."

All bits of news that have to do with the Japanese-American question are being taken up by editorial writers on all papers and there is strong evidence that when the new vote in California has really passed, there will be many newspapers which will use their columns to promote open antagonism in Tokio as an evidence of anti-American feeling on the part of the Japanese.

MEN'S SUIT PRICE HITS BOTTOM

New York, Nov. 9.—Men's clothes may be cheaper in the spring, but present fall prices are at their lowest ebb and many retailers have been forced, in order to keep their businesses operating, to mark their wares down to cost in order to produce sales.

This situation is national, according to a canvass of large wholesale manufacturers of men's clothes today in New York City.

Some manufacturers hope, with lowered prices of woolen goods and anticipated reduction in wages to make good suits next spring that will retail at about $35. Others declare they will retail at not less than $45 to $50.

The men's clothing industry in New York City is practically at a standstill. About 40,000 workers, or about 60 per cent of those normally employed, are idle. Manufacturers, usually busy at this time on spring goods, have not begun spring production yet.

VATICAN NEWS

Teletype to Go To France.—Pope Benedict XV. has decided to send a special representative to France as soon as diplomatic relations between France and the Holy See are officially resumed. It was reported in well informed Vatican circles today.

Pope Benedict XV. has decided to found an academy of archeology in Rome.

Among the Americans who have recently been received in private audience by the Pontiff are: Mr. Joseph Lynch, bishop of Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Walter Marshall, Mrs. Daisy Rae Drake and Mr. Patrick Scifres.

GERMANS AWAIT OUR LEAGUE PLAN

Paris, Nov. 9.—Germany has decided not to press for admittance into the league of nations at the Geneva meeting beginning November 15, but will await the proposals of President-elect Harding, of the United States for a new association of powers, according to information in well informed diplomatic circles.

A neutral diplomat was authority for the statement that this decision was prompted partly by fear that Germany's request for admittance would be rejected and partly by a desire for closer cooperation with the United States.

So far Germany has not sought admittance to the league of nations, but it was understood that Sweden, acting in behalf of Germany, is ready to propose the immediate admittance of Germany. Sweden counted upon the support of Premier Lloyd-George who has been showing an attitude towards Germany more lenient than that of France.

There are indications that Germany's decision is satisfactory to France. The semi-official newspaper Temps has been urging the league not to admit Germany even if the Berlin government applied. This newspaper advocated delay on any German request until the attitude of the United States is finally determined, which will be some months hence.

Among the nations seeking admittance at the Geneva meeting are Finland, Bulgaria and China.

The Japanese delegation has arrived at Geneva, but dispatches from that city say the Japanese are silent regarding their proposal for racial equality. Belief is growing in Paris that the Japanese will not press their demand for equality of races in view of the immigration negotiations now proceeding between Tokio and Washington.

REV. SPRACKLIN IS EXONERATED

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 9.—The Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin was exonerated of all blame in the slaying of Beverly Trumble, proprietor of the Chapel House, Windsor, by a coroner's jury Monday night. The verdict was as follows:

"We, the jury, find that Beverly Trumble came to his death by a bullet fired from an automatic pistol by the Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, license inspector, in self defense, about 3:30 a. m., Nov. 6, in the Chapel House, Sandwich."

PERMANENT SEPARATION

Secured After Being Separated 22 Years.

After being separated 22 years of her 25 years of married life, Mrs. Catherine Delamater of Peekskill applied yesterday to Justice Seeger in the supreme court at Mount Vernon for alimony and counsel fees pending the trial of her suit for a permanent separation from Willis Delamater. Counsel for Mrs. Delamater said her husband was a shipbuilder and that he operated a ferry between Peekskill and Tona Island. This attorney for Delamater denied, saying his client was not a shipbuilder and the ferry was nothing more than a second hand launch.

Justice Seeger granted $19 a week alimony and $75 counsel fees to Mrs. Delamater.

Chicken Pie Supper

The Altar Guild of Holy Cross Church will serve a chicken pie supper at Holy Cross Hall on Thursday, November 18th, from 5 to 8 p. m. Mrs. Thomas Daley will cater. The assistance given by Mrs. Daley to the ladies of the guild, whose culinary ability is already well known to the public, will assure an extraordinarily good supper.

Dr. Dwyer to Lecture

Dr. Horatio W. Dwyer, president of the Metropolitan Club of Boston, Mass., and one of the best known authors in the New Thought movement, will lecture at the Dr. C. O. Sakler Sanitarium Friday evening, November 12, at 7:30 o'clock, subject "The Human Spirit and Its Powers." The public is cordially invited to attend.

O'Donnell vs. Smith

New York, Nov. 9.—Mike O'Donnell, former middleweight champion, and Jeff Smith of Bayonne, N. J., will appear in the main event of fifteen rounds tonight at Madison Square Garden. Tex Rickard, promoter, has declared he will present the victor with a belt emblematic of the championship.

GLEN ROBINSON PLEADS GUILTY

And Pays $100 Fine.—Mrs. Austin Given Option of $200 Fine or Six Months in Jail.—Watkins's Case Put Over Until Thursday.

An adjourned term of county court was convened Monday afternoon at the court house with County Judge Fowler presiding. The fifty extra jurors who had been summoned in addition to the regular panel in attendance at the September term were sworn.

Two cases which had been put over until the adjourned date were placed on the day calendar for trial today. No. 2, Elma DeLoose against Edward P. Nolan, an action for damages by assault, and No. 16, the Canton Blackstone Company against Sarah L. Thornton, or Ellenville Garage Company, for goods sold and delivered, were the only two cases placed on the day calendar.

At the call of the criminal calendar District Attorney Frederick Traver announced that all of the criminal cases were ready for trial on the part of the People. There were nineteen cases on the calendar.

In the cases of The People vs. John Corbett and The People vs. Kelly, when arraigned both pled not guilty. Corbett is charged with burglary in the third degree alleged to have been committed in the town of Esopus on March 30, 1920, and entered his plea of not guilty through his attorney, Chris Flanagan.

Glen Robinson of Saugerties, who when previously arraigned entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of being a common gambler, through his attorney, Grant M. Brininger, changed his plea to guilty of violating section 973 of the penal law, which was accepted on the part of the People, and the court imposed a fine of $100 or 100 days in jail. Robinson paid the fine.

Mrs. Austin who when arraigned on October 11th entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of sending threatening letters with intent to extort money, in violation of section 856 of the penal law, changed her plea to guilty and a fine of $200 or six months in the county jail was imposed by the court. In pronouncing sentence Judge Fowler stated that he believed Mrs. Austin realized the seriousness of her crime and in view of the fact that she has several children to support the fine would be imposed and this would give her a chance to make good. John R. DeVany appeared for Mrs. Austin.

The case of the People against Claude Delamater and the case of the People against George Watkins were put over until Thursday morning when some disposition will probably be made of them.

The cases on the criminal calendar all of which are ready on part of the People are:

The People vs. Claude Delamater. The People vs. George Watkins. The People vs. Horton and Junior. The People vs. Howard Horton. The People vs. Thomas Junior. The People vs. Frances Sisco. The People vs. Oliver J. Auchmoody.

The People vs. Louis Breckman. The People vs. John J. Hines. The People vs. Augustus O'Connor. The People vs. Amelia Clone. The People vs. Luigi and John Castiglione.

The People vs. Peter Malia, Jr. The People vs. Richard McGinnis. The People vs. John Corbett. The People vs. Kelly. The People vs. James Saunders.

When court convened this morning at 10 o'clock the DeLoose-Nolan case was not ready for trial and court took a recess until 2 o'clock. When court convened affidavits will be submitted in No. 16, by W. N. Grogan, attorney for defendant, to have that case put over the term as he is engaged in other work and will be unable to try the case at this term of court.

Comments for Needlework Guild

Kingston is falling in line with other and larger cities in holding its annual Needlework Guild meeting—for the organization which is national—is doing a vast amount of practical philanthropic work on Thursday afternoon of this week at 2 o'clock at the Snyder school room of the Fair Street Reformed Church. In this case the "annual" means far more than the "election of officers," important as that is. It means that every member of the guild in the city will have sent in her two new garments, all of these gifts aggregating hundreds of warm articles of clothing for the sick and needy in the community. These garments will be assembled at the Thursday meeting and ready for distribution, and Mrs. Weisman, of the Salvation Army, will be present and address the gathering.

They Talk at Coffee

Twenty-eight crown up American girls including a number from Vassar College, students in a French high school, have balked against the rule requiring them to jump rope and play ball at certain hours with children, and in bed with all lights out by nine o'clock. They want to be transferred to universities where the rules are less strict.

Given Organ to Church

Vincent Astor has given a Shaker organ to the Church of the Most Sacred Heart. The organ will be built by the Shaker Company and ready for use by October, 1921. The organist of the church is Norman Cole-Johnson, F. A. C. O., a former organist of the Holy Cross Church, this city.

CAPTAINS CHOSEN FOR ROLL CALL

Judge Hasbrouck Outlines Needs and Work of Red Cross—Americans in Best Position to Alleviate Suffering All Over World.

Following is a statement by Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck, chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call in Ulster County: There is no society in the world comparable to the Red Cross. There is no Red Cross in the world comparable to the American Red Cross. It is the definite expression of human brotherhood and motherhood and of sublime compassion and Godlike love. It brings cheer to the lonely, balm to the afflicted, healing to the sick and diseased, surgery to the imperfect and injured, sustenance to the starving, clothing to the naked, service to the world.

The opportunity to join this great society is yours whether you be white, yellow, brown, red or black. As your chairman of the Roll Call, I am happy to announce that the following named women and men have consented to act as captains in their several towns and wards:

Denning—Mrs. George Ertz, Claryville. Esopus—E. A. Hathaway, Port Ewen. Gardiner—Mrs. Matthew Mullen, Gardiner. Hurley—Mrs. Frank Ten Eyck, Hurley. Hardenbergh—Stratton D. Todd, Seager.

Kingston—Lloyd—A. W. Williams, Highland. Marlborough—Mrs. Oscar Church, High Falls, and Mrs. C. C. Hardenbergh, Stone Ridge. Marlborough—R. M. Rounds, Milton. New Paltz—Mrs. George E. DuBois, New Paltz.

Oliver—The Rev. George O. Woolsey, Ashokan. Plattekill—Mrs. L. H. Sutton, Clintonville. Rochester—The Rev. Walter W. Voight, Accord. Rosendale—Dr. C. V. Hasbrouck, Rosendale. Saugerties—Mrs. John A. Snyder, Saugerties. Shandaken—Mrs. C. F. Van Keuren, Alankun. Shawangunk—Mrs. F. E. Cornell, Wallkill.

Ulster, Eddyville District—Miss Anna O'Connor, Eddyville. Wawarsing—Frank Douglas, Elleville. Woodstock—Dr. M. B. Downer, Woodstock.

First Ward—Mrs. Charles Tappen, 32 Maiden Lane, Kingston. Second Ward—Miss Margaret Riscley, 45 Downs street, Kingston. Third Ward—Miss Anne Heaney, 45 Broad street, Kingston. Fourth Ward—Lawrence J. Spangenberg, 63 East Chester street, Kingston.

Fifth Ward—Mrs. Harry Jacobs, 23 Auburn street, Kingston. Sixth Ward—Harry Lipkin, 15 St. Mary's street, Kingston. Seventh Ward—John F. Rowland, 112 Spring street, Kingston. Eighth Ward—Thomas Coughlin, 57 Montrose avenue, Kingston. Ninth Ward—Miss Madeline E. Woerner, 47 Hoffman street, Kingston.

Tenth Ward—Mrs. Daniel Hicks, 45 Van Buren street, Kingston. Eleventh Ward—Mrs. Edgar Shultis, South Pine street, Kingston. Twelfth Ward—Alfred Schmidt, 42 Johnson avenue, Kingston. Thirteenth Ward—Miss Rose Dougherty, 550 Abbot street, Kingston.

I hope every person to whom they apply will help and encourage them and thus the cause. I hope the people of our county will seek out and find their captains and join and assist them in their noble work. It will not require the captains and assistants to make too great an effort. The American Red Cross could spend $500,000,000 in alleviating the present suffering of the world just as efficiently as it can spend the sum it is likely to raise in this membership drive.

The American Red Cross needs money for several purposes: First, to carry on its work with the Army of Occupation numbering 12,000 now in Germany; second, to care for the entertainment of the recreation and social work of 26,000 sick and wounded soldiers and sailors in the hospitals of the army and navy; third, to care for and help our blind soldiers and sailors whose education for the new life stands committed by the government to the Red Cross; fourth, to continue the wonderful work of the home service section in connection with the families of soldiers and sailors; war risk insurance; compensation and help in emergencies; to employ nurses in the public health service; to help the naked and starving; the poorly fed; the sick and diseased; the blind, the deaf, the dumb, the maimed, the aged, the infirm, the orphaned, the abandoned, the homeless, the destitute, the suffering, the dying, the dead.

We have lost much of their confidence in our sympathy upon the war. We may surely restore our position by a nation wide generosity with our Red Cross and its devoted activities to save dying Europe. Find your captain and make sure your membership. If you can become your own membership, may membership for several of your friends; if you can be a contributing member at $5.00; a sustaining member at $10.00; a life member at $50.00; a patron at $100.00.

RED CROSS MASS MEETING WED.

Tomorrow evening there will be a big mass meeting in the interest of the fourth Red Cross roll call in the court room at the court house. At that meeting the main speaker will be Clarence King, assistant manager of the Atlantic division of the service organization. During the period after the war and the entire period of the war, Mr. King was director of the information service at national headquarters. Out of his work and that of the department was gathered the knowledge and information that made possible the home service section of the Red Cross throughout the country.

Mr. King is a lawyer by profession, having held an important official position during the New York administration of Mr. Mitchell, and is an exceptionally convincing and interesting speaker.

The New York office of the Red Cross assured the Kingston Red Cross office that the people of Kingston would be particularly favored in having Mr. King to address them on Wednesday evening. The meeting will be at 8 o'clock.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Her skull fractured, Mrs. Henry Conrad of 395 North street, Middletown, died almost instantly in an auto crash at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the Walden-Pine Bush highway, on what is known as Roosa's Flat. At the same time Miss Della Hughes of 400 North street, Middletown, received a fractured left leg and is now in Thrall Hospital, Middletown. F. A. Tears of 395 North street, that city, was slightly injured. Henry Conrad, husband of the dead woman, and driver of one car figuring in the mishap, sustained a cut right hand. Miss Helen Emerick was thrown clear of the wreckage and escaped uninjured.

The tragedy resulted from a rear-end collision between a Ford car in which were the five from Middletown and an eight cylinder, high-powered Apperson Jack Rabbit touring car, owned by Gerard Dephen of East Rutherford, N. J., and driven by Miss Antoinette Dicking of New York City, who, with three sisters, conducts a summer boarding place in Walker Valley. The big car struck the Ford.

The eight-cylinder car is being held by Chief George Runk of Walden. A charge of reckless driving has been lodged against Miss Dicking, driver of the big car, and a warrant for her arrest was sworn out by Justice Henry L. Wiley. Coroner John F. Tucker of Newburgh held an inquest Monday and it is probable an attempt will be made to secure a charge of manslaughter against the touring car driver.

HEBREW SCHOOL ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Kingston Hebrew School was held on Sunday evening at the Agudath Achim synagogue on Union street. There was a good sized attendance of members to whom Charles Katz, the chairman of the board of education, submitted the annual report which showed that there were one hundred contributing members and that sixty-nine children at the ages from 7 to 14 were receiving an education in religion and Jewish history. A few changes have been made in the personnel of the board. The following officers have been elected: Louis Kaplan, chairman; Samuel Kline, secretary; Charles Katz, treasurer; Abraham Saffran and Philip Lutrin as trustees. It was the sentiment of the meeting that another teacher was to be engaged to assist Mr. Clark, the present teacher, who in addition to the teaching of the children is engaged in many communal activities for the uplift and advancement of the Jewish community. He has instituted Friday evening services and lectures, Bible classes on Thursdays, singing classes on Mondays, debating classes on Tuesdays and lectures on Sundays. He has also organized two clubs among the school children and the boys and girls from 17 to 16 years of age. The first is called the "Pride of Israel" and the second "Young Judaea." It is Mr. Clark's intention to turn the Hebrew School into an all-around Jewish cultural center.

A unanimous vote of appreciation of his manifold activities and his profound interest in the welfare of the Jewish youth was expressed by those present to Mr. Clark and as a mark of heartfelt sympathy his salary was substantially raised.

Mr. Clark has covered the Jewish people in many different capacities, thanks to his versatility and intense loyalty to his race. Besides being a biblical scholar he is a noted linguist, lecturer, writer and music critic. He worked one year as a Jewish welfare worker in Camp Lee, Virginia. He also toured the country in behalf of the Jewish war orphans and has lectured under the T. M. H. A. direction.

Crucial Church School

Washington, Nov. 9.—The United States census revealed in around 1920 that "Crucial" is the word of the day. The census was taken today. The word was around when leading people with a local police department, the census was taken. There is apparently no injury to the ship.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Mary Dasher of this city died Monday evening after a lingering illness. She leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salhoff; two sisters, Mrs. Adam King of New Paltz and Mrs. Louis Budenhagen of this city; and one brother, Fred Salhoff, of this city. The funeral will be held from her late home, No. 115 First avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the family plot in Montrose Cemetery.

Marbletown, Nov. 9.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Myer, wife of Sydney Myer, Sr., of Marbletown, was held at her late residence on Friday, November 5, and was largely attended. She was a kind and loving wife and mother, very devoted to her family and her home, where she will be greatly missed, as well as by a large circle of friends. Her entire life was devoted to the welfare of others, putting aside thoughts for herself. The family have the sympathy of all in this community.

Solomon Birdsell Taber, Sr., died at his home, 154 North Clinton street, Poughkeepsie, on Sunday morning, at the age of 75 years. He had not been ill, and death came suddenly, caused by heart failure. Mr. Taber, who was born in Milton, went to Poughkeepsie about two years ago and has since made his home there. He was a member of the Friends' Meeting in Montgomery street. Mr. Taber is survived by his wife, who is city president of the W. C. T. U., by three sons, Charles R. Taber, of Milton; S. B. Taber, Jr., and Stephen R. Taber, both of Poughkeepsie; by two daughters, Mrs. I. W. Hallock, of Milton, and Mrs. Samuel W. Rushmore, of Plainfield, N. J., and by several grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at the Friends' Church in Montgomery street on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and burial will be in Milton.

Three County Jubilee Songs

The Ulster County Jubilee Singers will give a concert under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed Church of the Comforter tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the church. The program will be made up of southern folk songs. The Rev. Mr. Boeckel will sing a solo. A free will offering will be taken. After the concert the women will serve ice cream and home-made cake in the chapel. The public is cordially invited.

STATE-WIDE STUDY OF RURAL SCHOOLS

A state-wide study by nationally known experts in education is to be made of the rural schools of New York by the state department of education and the leading organizations representing the interest of the farmers. The sum of $75,000 has been given outright by the commonwealth fund to finance the undertaking which has its sole aim the improvement of educational opportunities afforded the boys and girls of the rural districts.

The survey is already getting under way under the guidance of a committee of twenty-one which includes three representatives each of the Farm Bureau, the Dairyman's League, the Grange, the Home Bureau, the State Teachers' Association, the State Department of Education and the State College of Agriculture at Cornell University. Besides these men and women, educational authorities from other states will be asked to advise and check up on the results of the investigation.

Dr. John H. Finley, commissioner of education, has considered the rural school problem so pressing that he placed it before the regents of the State University several months ago, urging cooperation with the various rural interests in its solution. At the farmers' week conference at Cornell University the matter was thoroughly discussed. The committee of twenty-one was the outcome of the several conferences.

The survey will include all schools of the state outside of cities and villages having a population of 45,000 or more, and probably will not be limited to a strictly educational program as it is thought that the rural school must be interpreted as a community institution, vitally concerned with its social environment. The general community interests and activities form a vital part in a study of this character. As the work is carried forward during the school year, the general phases of the survey will cover all parts of the state with special emphasis on the educational situation in certain typical counties in different parts of the state. This plan will give complete statistical information as to the teaching staff, school plant, school organization and supervision of the work and general school matters over the state as a whole. The detailed study covering certain typical counties will go into greater detail in certain problems, methods of instruction, the question of retardation and other factors of this character.

Special studies will also be made of health, education, including medical inspection, physical training, agriculture and home making courses and junior project work.

It is hoped as a result of this study to present to the lay reader in definite terms the present educational opportunities in the rural counties in New York, not only in comparison with each other, but in comparison with similar opportunities in other states.

In making a gift of $75,000 the commonwealth fund does not assume any responsibility for the administration of the funds or the direction of the work. The fund itself is to be turned over to the board of regents, who will cooperate with the committee of twenty-one. It is regarded as fundamentally important that there be the closest cooperation between the farm organizations and the rural representatives of the schools, not only through the joint activities of their representatives on the committee of twenty-one but also through conferences and questionnaires. In order that the reactions of the rural organizations may be fully expressed and made available for the benefit of the general committee. It is important, therefore, that the rural communities express themselves freely with regard to the problems that are to be studied in order that the work of the committee may have the full approval of the rural people before any final report is submitted. It is the intention of the committee of twenty-one to keep the people fully informed of its activities and the fullest discussion of this great problem is invited.

The men who compose the committee of twenty-three are:

Farm Bureau—W. G. McIntosh, Churchville, N. Y.; C. S. Post, Auburn, N. Y.; R. D. I. Herbert G. Reed, Bergen, N. Y.

Dairyman's League—E. R. Eastman, 393 Fifth avenue, New York; Albert Manning, 343 Fifth avenue, New York; the Hon. N. F. Webb, Corland, N. Y.

Grange—G. C. McNinch, Conesus, N. Y.; Mrs. Floyd Gates, Jameville, N. Y.; George Dunn, Webster, N. Y.

Home Bureau—Mrs. A. E. Erickson, Marathon, N. Y.; Mrs. M. E. Armstrong, West Winfield, N. Y.; Mrs. Edward Young, Milton, N. Y.

State Teachers' Association—Capt. W. E. Pierce, East Aurora, N. Y.; Capt. Merrie E. Macdonald, Chateaufort, N. Y.; Capt. J. D. Jones, Cuba, N. Y.

State Department of Education—Ray F. Gardner, state department of education, Albany; George M. Wiley, state department of education, Albany; Frank B. Gilbert, state department of education, Albany.

Rural Education—Prof. J. E. Burroughs, Agricultural College, Ithaca, N. Y.; Prof. Paul J. Kruse, Agricultural College, Ithaca, N. Y.; Prof. A. N. Works, Agricultural College, Ithaca, N. Y.

ADOPTS

Byron, Nov. 8.—A business meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. L. G. Roberts on Wednesday afternoon of this week at 2:15. All members are cordially invited to be present. Important business connected with the annual church fair will be discussed.

All who attended the reception given by the Port Jervis Epworth League to the Epworth Chapter last Friday evening found themselves cordially welcomed and delightfully entertained. The Scotch songs rendered by Mr. Tamm were greatly enjoyed as also were the recitations given by Mrs. Tamm. The games were entered into with great zest by all who participated and the refreshments, which were delicious, were partaken of with equal enthusiasm. At rather a late hour the guests said good night, expressing the wish that the visiting League might have the pleasure of entertaining the Port Jervis members at some future time. George Martin, of Poughkeepsie, with his daughter, Marjorie, visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin on Sunday. Clifford and Miss Alice Eckert of Cold Spring, N. Y., and George Constant of Marlborough, N. Y., visited Andrew Eckert on Sunday. Mrs. Merritt and Miss Eckert are daughters of Mr. Eckert and Mr. Johnson. Mr. Constant is son-in-law. Five grandchildren of Mr. Eckert were with the party, who motored to Esopus in two cars belonging to the family.

Miss Beanie House of Ulster Park and Miss Minnie House of St. Remi were over Sunday guests of their sister, Mrs. Leslie E. Hoyt.

William J. McLain and his assistant, Hugh Lundy, have completed the painting of the Methodist Church in this village and it certainly presents a very fine appearance. A well cared for church usually represents a progressive community.

Education

Education is the leading of human souls to what is best and making what is best out of them, and these two objects are always attainable together and by the same means. The training which makes men important in themselves also makes them most serviceable to others.—Buckley.

Turning the Leaf

In Yorkville, country folk from their "dumb" "to turn the leaf" should they meet a single sample. In Scotland a single new over a dwelling is believed to portend death to one of the inmates.

Camel CIGARETTES

Dear Old Boy Pete!

Dallas, Texas.
Sunday.

This corner of the U.S. mainland is so wonderful in its bigness and bustle I guess I go mouth wide open and eyes staring! Why, Pete, Texans don't talk in miles—it doesn't mean anything! They'll tell you that this place, or that, is an all-day trip, or two days and a night distant, etc. And, old yardstick, you've got the feet, just let it sink in deep that Texas is not only over 800 miles wide but it is our fifth state in population!

Heard a bird in the Adolphus hotel say that when he comes off the west border he figures he's close home to Baltimore when he's across the Lone Star state! Talk about "jumps"! Try a few, say the one between Texarkana and El Paso!

Pete, everything grows big down here—business as well as folks' hearts! I like the way they never forget! Here I was walking on Main Street yesterday when as fine a type of man as ever wore one of those broad Texas smiles came up to me. "How are you, lieutenant?" says he. "Maybe you'll call back that day at Camp Dick when I brought over that bunch of Camel cigarettes for the boys," he continued. Right then and there a Camel conference opened!

Golly, Pete, this party coins Camel compliments faster than the mint makes money! "Lieutenant," says he, "I know when I'm set! I've smoked cigarettes for five years! (Now LISTEN, PETER!) I know Camels and I know their marvellous mild, mellow body and refreshing flavor and wonderful Turkish and Domestic blend! A million Camels wouldn't tire a smoker's taste!" etc, etc! Now, Pete, I'll say that's some testifying!

Between you and me I'll be gazing at tall buildings and things around 43rd & Broadway—New York—about the hour this note hits Boston's Back Bay! Write me at the same old stand!

Sincerely
Shorty.

ACHES AND PAINS—SLOAN'S GETS 'EM!

Famous pain and ache Liniment. Kept handy, brings warming, gratifying relief.

RHEUMATIC twinges ease up soon. So do stiff joints, lame back, neuralgia, overtaxed muscles, and those pains from weather exposure, too—they don't fight long against the counter-irritation that Sloan's Liniment produces.

Always keep this old family friend handy for instant use—a little penetrates without rubbing, leaving no skin stains, mites, or clogged pores. Its very odor—healthy and stimulating—suggests the good it will do.

All druggists. Three sizes—35c, 70c, $1.40. Largest size is most economical.

Curtains and Draperies For the Home

Curtains and draperies play a most important part in the arrangement of any home. And much time and thought should be spent on their selection. Colors and designs must be chosen to blend with furniture, rugs and walls—covering for upholstered furniture must also blend.

We have taken all this into consideration, and as a result our Upholstery Department carries a stock of curtains, window shades, draperies and upholstery fabrics so large that one is sure to find among the many beautiful materials displayed exactly the ones needed to perfect and enhance the beauty of a home of almost any description.

We maintain a staff of designers, salesmen and workmen capable of advising and executing the curtaining and upholstering of your home. They can show you an extensive assortment of fabrics suitable for every kind of interior decoration. We cannot mention them all here, but we do call your attention to some of our velours.

Plain and figured silk and cotton velours, for hangings and furniture coverings, in a great variety of colors. Prices range from $3.49 upwards.

Two-toned self-colored cotton velour—highly mercerized—allows figures—in blue and tan. $5.00 yd. in plain colors.

MATTERS BEFORE SURROGATE GILL

The will of Bertie H. Cism of this city was admitted to probate by Surrogate Gill in the surrogate's court today. To her daughter, Mae Cism, the testatrix bequeaths the sum of $500 payable out of the proceeds of the sale of the residence property, and also a note. One-half of the remainder of the proceeds of the sale of the residence property is given by the testatrix to each of her two sons, Franklin P. Cism and William J. Cism. Certain jewelry, household furniture and personal effects she gives to her daughter, Carrie Cism. The balance of the estate is to be held in trust for a period of ten years for the benefit of Carrie Cism, and at the expiration of that term or before in the event of her death or before in the event of her death, the estate then remaining is to be divided equally among the two sons and the daughter, Carrie. The executrix and trustee is empowered to hold and operate the barge "Carrie C." The will was executed November 20, 1918, and witnessed by Harry H. Fleming and C. J. Heitzman. The value of the personal property is $7,500. Harry H. Fleming appeared for the executrix.

The will of Mary A. Gallagher of this city was admitted to probate by Surrogate Gill, the testatrix gives her entire estate to her husband, John Gallagher, whom she appoints executor. The will was executed October 17, 1920, and witnessed by Rose A. Hickey and Judge Betts. The value of the real estate is $2,500 and the personal property amounts to $1,800. Judge Betts appeared for the executor.

In the estate of Abbie Kite, an order was granted appraising the estate at $139.86 and declaring the same exempt from taxation under the taxable transfer act. Stephen W. Collins, of New York city, one of the executors, appeared in person; Andrew J. Cook appeared for the state comptroller.

A further hearing was had before Surrogate Gill on Monday in the matter of the judicial settlement of the account of Harry H. Terwilliger as administrator of the estate of Edwin Enderly of the town of Gardiner. Administrator Terwilliger was examined by DeWitt W. Ostrander, counsel for interested parties, in regard to silverware which had been owned by Mr. Enderly. Mr. Terwilliger said he had seen the silverware in the Enderly home, but did not know what had become of it. He denied having told Mrs. Hayes, a sister of Edwin Enderly, or Mr. Hayes, that the silverware was at the home of his Terwilliger's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were examined in regard to such a conversation which they said had occurred. Testimony was closed and the matter was adjourned until November 15, when it will be argued by the attorneys. John N. Vanderlyn appeared for the administrator with Judge Jenkins, of counsel; Virgil B. Van Wageningen appeared for Edward B. Humiston, a creditor; DeWitt W. Ostrander and Andrew Wright Lent appeared for other interested parties.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 9.—Although there was another selling movement against many stocks at the opening of the stock market today, the tone showed pronounced improvement after the start and there were many indications that the selling side had been overpowered and the leading stocks had been accumulated at lower levels by strong interests. This was particularly the case in the leading railway stocks, Southern Pacific advancing 1 1/2 to 11 1/2 and Northern Pacific 1 1/2 to 32. Reading rose 1/2 to 59. Steady accumulation of Steel Common by one house held that stock firm and after a recession of 1/2 to 84 1/2, it easily moved up to 84 1/2. General Motors was heavy, ranging from 15 to 14 1/2, a new low record. Seneca Copper continued in demand at its high level being influenced by the statement made in regard to the outlook for copper metal.

Attention was attracted during the forenoon to the vigorous buying of Seneca Copper which rose to a new high of 22 1/2, a gain of one point. The general list displayed an irregular tone with most of the early advance being maintained. Reading was in good demand and sold up 1/2 to 59 1/2. Steel Common ranged between 84 1/2 to 84 1/2. Mexican Petroleum was in steady demand and after selling off to 17 1/2, rose to 17 3/4. Pan-American Petroleum advanced over 1 point to $1. The sugar and tobacco stocks were weak. American Sugar falling over 3 points to 9 1/2. American Smelter yielded 1/2 to 77.

The forenoon irregularity was followed by a move of selling shortly after 1 o'clock on which most of the early gains were wiped out and further losses sustained by many issues. Southern Pacific after selling up to 11 1/2, declined to 11 1/4. Reading from a high of 59 1/2, yielded to 58 1/2. Steel Common broke to 84 1/2, a loss of over 1 point. Mexican Petroleum lost all of its forenoon advance yielding to 17 1/2.

The market closed weak; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds weak.

Sullivan, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Governor Smith, according to his personal campaign statement, filed today with the election bureau of the secretary of state office, received nothing and spent nothing in his unsuccessful attempt to be re-elected. All money spent in his campaign was expended by statement said, by the Smith campaign committee through J. F. Gifford, treasurer and through the Democratic state committee by James A. Foxworth, its co-chairman.

SEEKS ARMORY FOR BASKETBALL

Bill Hopinstall, manager of the New York State League basketball team, which won the championship last season, was in town today, in an effort to make a deal with armory officials for putting on a professional basketball team this season. Mr. Hopinstall states that he can secure Barney Sedrum, Marty Friedman and Riconda, well known New York players, and Jack Spalt, local tosser. In addition he would also like to secure home talent. He believes that he can bring a very good club here, that after playing independent ball this season, would go into a league next year. Mr. Hopinstall is now located at the state armory at Albany, and expects to receive a reply from the local armory officials in a few days.

TRIBUTE PAID WILL H. HAYS

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Sullivan, Ind., Nov. 9.—"Hello, Bill," was the password here today when the home town of Will H. Hays, Republican national chairman, paid tribute to the "big little man" who marshalled the G. O. P. forces in their victorious campaign. Friends and neighbors—Republican and Democrats alike—who have known "Bill" Hays since he was "knee high," as well as delegations from other hoosier towns and cities, joined in a home coming celebration in which a genuine tribute of affection was manifest.

Will Hays was hailed a neighbor who has achieved distinction rather than as a conquering hero and it was "Hello, Bill," everywhere he went.

GERMANS FEAR FRANCE'S BLACKS

By Telegram to The Freeman, Berlin, Nov. 9.—Both reactionaries and radicals in Germany unite in the opinion that the military education of negroes in the French Army is, in their opinion, a world menace. German propaganda busied itself during the war with tales of the outrages perpetrated by the negro troops. At the same time the condemnation of France could not be made sufficiently strong because she took these innocent aboriginal children and slaughtered them in a white man's war.

General Mangin's article in the latest issue of the Revue des deux Mondes demands that France increase her black army and bring pressure to bear on Belgium under the terms of the Franco-Belgian military convention to conscript the 20,000,000 natives in the Belgian colonies.

"This French colonial officer doesn't suspect the results which are already beginning to be apparent from the use of black troops in the World War," comments the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, the German government's official mouthpiece.

Africa For Africans. "Appreciation of the effects is beginning to dawn on America," however," it continues. "As a result of the first meeting of the International Negro Improvement Association in New York the slogan was adopted, 'Africa for the Africans.'"

"The speakers at this convention await a new World War within the next twenty years. Then the African negro will fight neither under the banner of France nor of England, but under the banner of liberty to conquer the African continent for themselves while the white races are otherwise engaged. In the meantime the leaders will continue their propaganda. In this connection it is to be remembered that at the beginning of this year their own publication, The African and Oriental Review, appearing in London, advised the co-operation of the Africans and the Asiatics.

"The French and the Belgians are arming and drilling the masses who will later turn their arms against them in the service of the African cause."

Against Negro Troops.

The German reactionary and militarist naturally oppose the presence of French negro troops in Europe for they will be a serious foe should Germany's growing bitterness against France some day break out in a war of revenge.

Organized labor, Bolsheviks and Communists of varied shade of red are all united in their propaganda to drive the negro mercenaries from Europe. Reliable and authoritative investigation has proved beyond a doubt that the negro outrages in occupied territory were a disaster to a white race.

Nevertheless the spirit which prompted the spreading of the stories of negro outrages was in no small part due to humanitarian motives, but to radicals who realize that the French colonial troops can not be reached by Bolshevik propaganda or by appeals for sympathy with the laborers. The agencies have no fine distinctions of patriotic feeling, and they will machine gun French strikers with the same lust as they will attack German invaders. Radical Europe and nationalistic Germany, each for their own reasons, see the militarization of Africans imported to Europe as a menace to their respective causes.

ARMISTICE SUNDAY

November 14 At Roundout Presbyterian Church.

Sunday, November 14, will be universally observed throughout the country as Armistice Sunday; and in all of the churches on that day special tributes will be paid to the men who served in the great war, and the memory of those who fell will be fittingly observed.

The Roundout Presbyterian Church will observe the day with special services, and at that time the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Charles G. Ellis, will present to the congregation for a memorial a picture containing the photographs of the service men from the church. The session of the church is planning to make Armistice Sunday a rally day with every member of the congregation present. It is expected that every member from the church who served in the world war will also be present that day.

AN ARTISTIC MURDER.

Kentham kills wife and bride as Mrs. K. kills.

By Telegram to The Freeman, New York, Nov. 9.—Murder and suicide with a photograph accompaniment was revealed today by a police investigation into the death of John Kentham, 34, a Bohemian artist, and his three months bride, Mrs. Athena Kentham, aged 19.

The couple had been estranged, but Kentham telephoned his wife to come home. She did so. Kentham put a love song record on the phonograph and as the last note died away, he shot his wife in the head and then turned his revolver upon himself.

"Tough as history," is a phrase used by the popular press and the history of the Kentham case and it may be for that reason very accurate. One Andrew Jackson was undoubtedly called "Old Hickory" by his enemies because of his tough, unyielding disposition. This statement may have been true during the war with the Great Indians in 1811, when he led his men on bloody note over a period when they were short of rations.

What a Cold Garage Does to Your Car

BETWEEN trips let your car stand in a WASCO-Heated Garage—kept at constant temperature by the WASCO Automatic Regulator. The warm air envelopes the car—reaches every nook and corner—drives off the snow and ice—thaws the frost out of the valves—warms all the metal parts—keeps oil and grease in working condition, prevents rusted cylinders and burned out bearings. There is no chance of frozen radiator, cracked water jacket or broken water pump.

Storage batteries work as a dead animal when cold—they will not take a full charge—and consequently suffer greatly from overwork. They also are much more likely to become ruined by freezing.

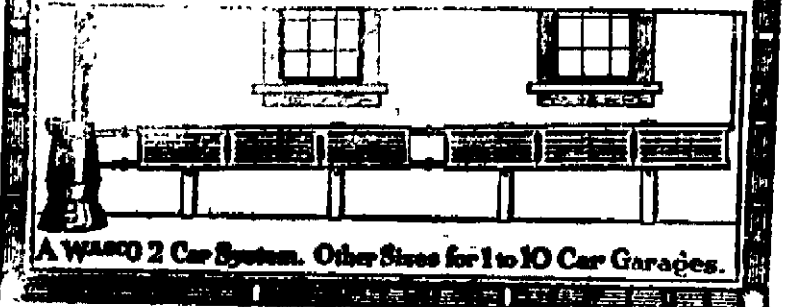

With the garage warmed, you enjoy taking the same care of the lubrication and adjustment of the car as you do in the summer time. And your car starts easily.

The self-regulating WASCO Hot Water Heating System requires attention only once a day.

A car can set it up—no expensive steam-fitter required. Costs less than a fire for heating offices, stores, cottages, etc.

MASONS OBSERVE TWO BIG EVENTS

Rondout Lodge Honors Members Who Have Passed Fiftyth Masonic Milestone, and Celebrates Masonic Birthday of Washington.

Two memorial events in Masonic history were appropriately celebrated Monday evening by Rondout Lodge, No. 343, Free and Accepted Masons. The first was the presentation of Masonic emblems to two of the members of the lodge, who this year passed their fiftieth Masonic milestone, LeGrand Becker and William Forde, and the other the celebration of the Masonic birthday of George Washington. The address of the evening to the veterans of the lodge and in the memory of Washington was delivered by Right Worshipful, Charles H. Johnson, Junior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of the state, and proved one of the most eloquent addresses heard in Kingston in years. At the close a beefsteak dinner and a social hour were enjoyed.

The celebration of the two noteworthy events brought out a large attendance of the members and of visiting Masons, and before the exercises of the evening opened every seat in the lodge was taken. In addition to Brothers Becker and Forde, there were ten other members of the lodge who had celebrated their fiftieth Masonic milestone. The ten were Charles A. Pardee, John B. Alinger, John M. Mayer, John S. Roosa, Grove Webster, Fred Straley, George F. Stephan, William B. Scott, James Tongue and Abram W. Parrell. As the twelve veterans were escorted to their seats they were greeted with hearty applause.

Brother Charles H. Johnson was then introduced and paid an eloquent tribute to those whose golden jubilee was being celebrated, and then presented Brothers Becker and Forde with emblems commemorative of the event. The other ten brothers had received their emblems at the time they crossed the half-century mark in Masonic life. The speaker said that the lodge, of which he is an honorary member, was not only honoring the half-century veterans but celebrating the Masonic birthday of George Washington, Father of our Country, and a Master Mason.

He emphasized the fact that Masonry stood squarely behind the government and that it believed in the public school system, and had been the first organization to petition the government to establish the system, offering to help finance the project. From the days of Washington down to the days of President-elect Harding, the great majority of our presidents had been Master Masons. He traced the influence of Masonry in the building up of the foundations of our country, the greatest country in the world. Not only was Washington a Master Mason but he was also a Master of the lodge, and he was the first president to preside over a Masonic lodge while serving the country as its president.

When Washington first took the oath of office, the oath was administered to him by Chancellor Livingston, another Master Mason, who later became head of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York, and the Bible Washington kissed on taking oath of office was a Bible that had been taken from a Masonic lodge room. During the world war one of the slogans was, "We must pay our debt to Lafayette" and Masons should be proud of the fact that in the day of the Revolutionary War the famous French general Lafayette was not only an exponent of liberty, but was a Master Mason in good standing. Other great Master Masons of the early days of our country were Robert Morris, the great financier of the Revolutionary War, Paul Revere, whose famous midnight ride fills a page in the glorious history of our country and many others.

From the days of Washington down to the present time the names of Master Masons are emblazoned on the bright pages of the history of our country. Many a man whose life was worth while and who played an important part in the upbuilding of our nation was a Master Mason. While we should be proud of our ancestors, and a glorious ancestry it is, we should not forget the fact that Masonry does not look back but is looking forward. The order has grown until at the present time in New York state there are over nine hundred lodges with a membership of over 250,000 of the leading men in every walk in life. We should be proud of Masonry, not only for its glorious past, but for its future. Masonry has always led in everything worth while. It believes firmly in our national institutions, and loves the flag of our country. It has no sympathy with any who would attempt to tear down our institutions or attempt to destroy our public school system.

Those who advocated the system of government now in vogue in Russia were not only the enemies of our country, but they were the enemies of Masonry. The time had come when the watchword of our government should be "America on guard." We should see to it that there is no one elected to office or appointed to position except true Americans who loved our country and believed firmly in its institutions.

At the close of Brother Johnson's address the lodge served a beefsteak dinner and at the close of the evening a social hour was enjoyed.

Brother Johnson was accompanied by Brother Kaplan of Temple Lodge, No. 1, and Brother C. E. Ellis of the Rondout Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. F. C. Weyant, pastor of Trinity W. E. Church, who spoke in behalf of the lodge.

Brother Johnson was accompanied by Brother Johnson, who spoke in behalf of the lodge.

CHIMAMPA OIL POOL RUINED

C. H. Bishop, rendered several selections. It was a late hour when the impressive exercises were finally brought to a close, and it was a night that will long be remembered in local Masonic circles.

By Telegraph to The Freeman
Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 9.—Tampico oil men, stunned by the announcement that salt water has filled the Chimampa pool, the greatest natural oil reservoir the world has ever seen are busy with the work of prospecting for another great pool to take the place of the exhausted field. With the disappearance of the Chimampa oil, some of the large oil companies have lost their most important source of supply and a general policy of retrenchment is probable.

The Chimampa pool was a north extension of the southern pool in the Tampico field, but it was greater than any of the other Mexican pools and surpassed anything anywhere else. As "Lot 114" the Chimampa pool was famous in every corner of the world where men of industry or affairs meet.

Seventeen wells took oil from the pool for years and each of the seventeen was celebrated in oil circles. When salt water entered the pool, eighteen wells were being drilled. Some of these new wells struck salt water instead of petroleum, leaving no doubt that the Chimampa pool was a thing of the past, and work on all the new wells was stopped.

Some of the Chimampa wells produced as much as 100,000 barrels of oil a day for eight or ten years. All were substantial producers, the total output at one time being close to 1,000,000 barrels of oil a day. That however, was several years ago.

The Standard Oil Company had some of its best wells in "Lot 114," and the cutting off of this supply was a serious loss. Other companies that owned Chimampa wells are the Transcontinental, Eagle, Hausteca, Empire Island, Freeport and the Mexican Gulf.

Just before it became known here that Chimampa pool was a thing of the past Mexico City was filled with sharpshooters from Tampico who tried to sell the worthless Chimampa property. Some were successful, and their victims will suffer heavy losses.

But there were many business men who, not understanding why property in the great Chimampa pool should be hurriedly pressed for sale, would have nothing to do with the swindlers.

LOUWISCH GONE.

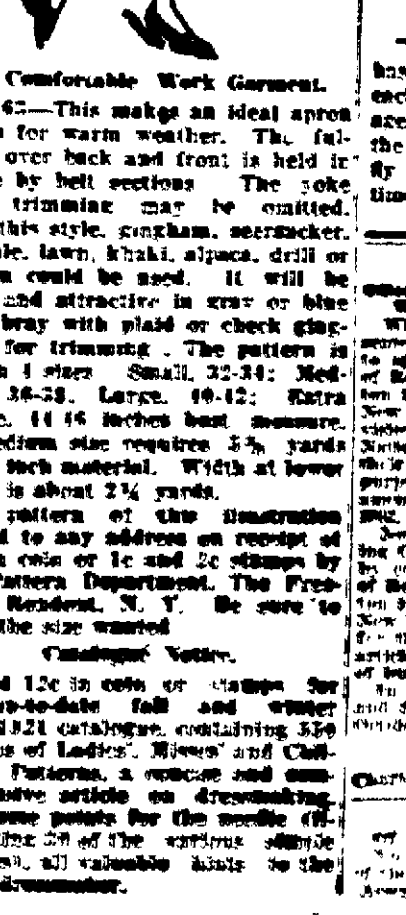

Poughkeepsie Hebrew Teacher Disappears on Eve of Trial.

Joseph Louwisch, the Hebrew school teacher of Poughkeepsie, who recently was mobbed in that city because of alleged unfaithfulness to his wife, has disappeared.

Louwisch had gone from Poughkeepsie to Petersburg, Va., to teach a school. All efforts on the part of his attorney Saturday night to reach him failed.

Louwisch divorced his wife some time ago, following which she committed suicide out east. The case was to be reopened. It being alleged that Louwisch had forced his wife to give such testimony as would warrant a divorce.

12 CONFERENCES ON EDUCATION

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Twelve citizens' regional conferences on education will be held throughout the nation, according to announcement of the bureau of education, beginning with a conference for the states of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin, scheduled to be held in Chicago on November 23, and concluding with a conference for the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut on December 18.

The regional conferences announced are the outcome of the national citizens conference on education, held in Washington in May, as this conference voted that the commissioner of education should call another similar conference late in the fall of this year for the purpose of discussing the educational situation at that time, legislative measures to be presented to the legislatures of the several states next year, and the means of continuing the fostering of such interest among the people at large and their representatives in legislative bodies as may be necessary to obtain the needed legislation.

After carefully considering the matter, the commissioner of education has decided that a series of regional conferences would be more effective than one conference for the whole country could be, as this will make possible a much larger total attendance and a more practical and detailed discussion of conditions and needs and methods of meeting them in the states of the several sections.

To these conferences there have been invited governors of respective states, mayors of cities, members of Chambers of Commerce, Rotary Clubs, Boards of Trade, women's organizations, patriotic and civic associations, labor unions, farmers' unions, members of state boards of education, county and city superintendents of public instruction, presidents of universities, colleges and normal schools, ministers, lawyers, physicians, editors, business men, and all who are interested as citizens in the improvement of the schools, which, as citizens, they own, control, pay for, and use in the promotion of education from the standpoint of statesmanship and the public welfare.

Among the regional conferences will be one for the states of New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Important things to be emphasized in coming educational campaigns were set forth in a letter recently written by Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, in response to inquiries in regard to the matter. Dr. Claxton says: "The crisis in education consists essentially in this, that whereas in the past we have been able, despite low salaries paid to teachers, to obtain for the schools a constant stream of men and women many of whom though without definite professional preparation, have been young men and women of more than usual native ability, many of them possessed of fine culture and fairly good general scholarship. Though these have not remained long and have had no definite knowledge of the processes of teaching and little still in applying them, still their personality and culture have been such that it has been good for boys and girls to come in contact with them. Usually quite young, they have remained in teaching for two or three or four years while waiting for the maturity necessary for success in or even admission to other professions and vocations, and frequently have sought in order to prepare themselves for other work. Hundreds of thousands of these have become successful home makers, leaders in society, engineers, lawyers, physicians, ministers, captains of industry, statesmen. To be sure there have always been many young teachers who lack this ability and culture, but there have been very many of the class just described.

"However, under changed conditions we may not expect many of this class in the future, and unless salaries are raised and policies changed the teachers of the public schools in the future will be made up of young men and women of very mediocre ability serving in the schools for short terms, and of those of still less ability who will remain longer because they have not the energy, personality, or ability to undertake anything else. This means deterioration and disintegration of the public school system. The only salvation against it is to increase salaries to such an extent as will induce young men and women of superior ability and culture to prepare themselves for teaching, and then adopt a policy by which they may be kept in the schools after they have proven their ability and gained power and skill by experience.

"This means a large increase in the average pay of teachers. We shall need to spend two or three times as much for this purpose as we now do spend in the country at large. And this increase of expenditures must be made at a time when taxes for other purposes, national, state and local, are unusually large.

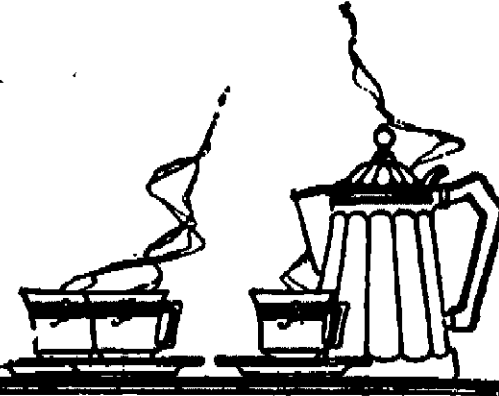

"The close relationship between education and wealth and wealth-producing power must be clearly shown, so that the people may understand that this expenditure for education will not constitute a burden but rather an investment through which they may be the better able to bear the other burdens of taxation.

"One so much of money will enable us to obtain good teachers for the schools in sufficient numbers until there are means of preparing these. For this there must be more normal schools and other training schools for teachers, and they must all be such that they supported them they are not. If all the teachers are recruited from any normal school or any other school of any kind in the United States, from the commencement of the first school at Bridgewater, Mass., until now, were still living, and all teaching there would still be need of 110,000 teachers to fill the elementary schools. The normal school graduates of last spring are only sufficient to supply about 20 per cent of the teachers needed to fill the vacancies in the elementary

The 3 best ways to make Coffee

THESE are the recipes the greatest coffee merchant recommends. Select the one best suited to your coffee pot.

For drip coffee he uses Yuban pulverized; for percolator or the old-fashioned method, Yuban ground. Or you can get it in the whole bean. Don't drink any more cups of coffee that are "not quite right." Try Yuban by one of these famous recipes and have your cup of coffee just right every morning. Learn for yourself all the satisfaction that lies in a cup of good coffee morning after morning—always the same. It will give you a new idea of how wonderful a coffee can be.

Old Fashioned

Use one heaping dessert-spoonful of clean-cut ground Yuban to each cup of water. Put the coffee in the pot and pour over it the fresh water, briskly boiling; let the coffee steep five or ten minutes over a low heat or flame, but do not boil. Settle with a dash of cold water.

Drip

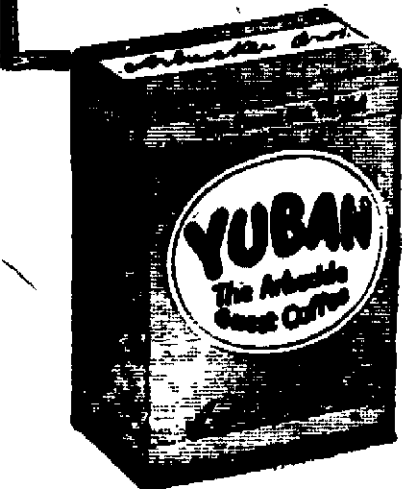

Drip coffee may be made in a drip pot provided with a muslin cloth, a metal or porcelain dripper, or with filter paper. It may also be filtered through a cloth into a plain china pot.

If a cloth is used, allow a heaping teaspoonful of Yuban, pulverized, to each cup of fresh water, briskly boiling. Redrip two or three times when stronger coffee is desired.

If a metal dripper or filter paper is used, allow one heaping dessert-spoonful of Yuban clean-cut ground to each cup of fresh water, briskly boiling. Allow the water to remain on coffee about five minutes to steep before releasing.

Percolator

Use one heaping dessert-spoonful of clean-cut ground Yuban to each cup of fresh cold water. Pour the water in the percolator, then place coffee in the regular filter or basket—let the water percolate over the coffee five or ten minutes, depending upon the temperature. With electric percolator it will take fifteen to eighteen minutes.

Always the same wonderful full flavor

No matter which of these three ways you choose, you will always find in Yuban the same delightful fragrance and individual flavor which have made it preferred above all other coffees in New York.

Serve Yuban for breakfast tomorrow. Make it by one of these carefully tested methods—and find out how truly delicious your breakfasts can be.

schools this fall. We are now spending between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000 for the support of normal schools. We must spend at least $75,000,000. California is somewhat better supplied with normal schools than other states. Yet a very large proportion of the young teachers of California are not normal-school graduates, nor have they had equal preparation elsewhere.

A hunting party consisting of Lou Tremper, Eugene Livingston and H. Townsend sallied forth into the woods of the Catskills in quest of game last Saturday. While in the neighborhood of Shandaken Lou Tremper's rifle "barked" and when the smoke cleared away he was credited with a victory in the form of a 150 pound deer. All their friends are now anxiously waiting for their portion of the "critter."

MINORS SAY "LET 'EM FIGHT IT OUT"

(By Jack Veinock)
By Telegram to The Freeman,
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—Major League baseball is roosting on a mere bubble today.

Action taken at Chicago by the 11 affiliated National and American League clubs has shaken organized baseball to its very foundation. In fact there is no such animal now.

War between the major league factions is on. It looks like a fight to a finish and one side is certainly going to get a line licking. Which side that will be remains to be seen. There is just a ghost of a chance that some catch-as-catch-can peace maker will horn into the war and avert total disaster.

Some talk to the effect that the threatened moves of rival factions were 75 per cent bluff was swept aside today with the news from Chicago.

It looks like a great winter for the taxpayers.

Here in Kansas City minor league club owners from every nook and cranny of the country are sitting steadily viewing the situation from a safe and sane angle. The attitude of the minors is this:

Let 'em fight it out. It's no quarrel of ours."

Emissaries representing the major league factions were due to arrive here this morning to confab with the minors in an attempt to "line them up." With "Garry" Hornmann coming as chairman of the committee representing the new National League and Dan Johnson as the representative of the bob-tailed American League, the leaders gathered here were prepared for shower baths of eloquence.

The minors will listen to anything within reason that either side has to offer but it is very probable that the big league orators will get an indifferent reception here. It may amount to a social chill.

The minors are not looking for war or anything akin to it. They have the initiative and the money to go ahead without bothering about any major league squabbles. No less than ten minor league presidents made this plain to the writer today.

This stand, taken in face of the belief that the new war is going to be either a tragedy or the worst kind of a farce is the solid stand of 75 per cent of the baseball men gathered here.

Whether or not they will maintain it is a question.

Al Tierney, chairman of the minor league committee appointed many months ago to deal with the majors' expressed minor league sentiment today when he said:

"This is no fight of ours. The minor leagues have an open mind regarding the proposed plan for the reorganization of government of baseball insofar as I have learned today, with the exception that a majority is not in favor of the proposed 'Lasker plan'.

What the minors want is equality. The big majority is against any move to resume the draft. We do not know of course what the gentlemen coming here from Chicago will have to put before us. Quite naturally the National Association will listen to anything they have but this does not mean that it will take sides one way or the other."

David L. Fultz, president of the National Association, and Thomas Hickey, president of the American Association, are taking practically the same stand. Said Fultz today:

"Our position seems quite charged. The minors represent the country and baseball fans at large. We have vastly more invested in the game than have the majors and we employ many more players. For the last two years, we have been going along smoothly, running things on our own."

The minors went into session here this morning at the Hotel Mulbach with a young crowd to pick among themselves. Politics is the father of the crowd. The contest is between John A. Farrell, for years secretary and treasurer of the National Association, and Mike Sexton, president of the minor league body. Sexton will be put up for president, secretary and treasurer by one faction. Farrell's friends will attempt to keep him in office.

Aside from the election of officers and discussion of plans for the coming season, the minors have little of importance to do in their own ranks and they will be ready for the major league visitors on reasonably short notice according to indications.

One plan, however, will be put before the minor league body. It is a set of resolutions looking toward a campaign to be conducted by the minors for the purpose of having every state legislature in the country pass a law that will make the recurrence of any such thing as the fixing of the 1919 world's series a felony, punishable by fine and imprisonment. This set of resolutions has been drawn up and its sponsors will read it to the convention today.

Between swapping opinions regarding the outcome of the new baseball war the minor leaguers are finding time to talk about trades and sales of players. The outbreak of the war however will probably not a temporary quietus on any deals that are in the making for when it comes to players the minors are not exactly sure of where they stand, despite the fact that the rival major league factions are expected to respect territorial rights and player contracts.

MALDEN REVIVAL

Crowds From Surrounding Country Attend Services.

Sunday marked one of the biggest days ever witnessed in the spiritual history of Malden. Crowds of people came from miles around to the Unit Evangelistic meetings in the Methodist Church. The day opened with an old fashioned class meeting led by Mr. Terpening. Following this came the regular morning service of the campaign. Delegations from Port Haven, Maunokill and Cornsille were present, numbering about 50 who had come a distance of 40 miles for the day of worship. Evangelist Muir preached a powerful message on "The Potter and the Clay." The main thought being the power of God, the great Potter, to pick up the marred vessel, the broken fragments, and make it again. Mr. Kaufman sang "Beneath the Cross of Jesus" as a song message. A beautiful solo was also sung by Miss Charlotte Edwards, of Malden. At 2 o'clock an organ recital of superior quality was given by Mrs. Ferro of Catskill, while nearly every seat was filled. R. E. Kaufman started the service of the afternoon in a stirring song service and musical program. Calvin Cook of Albany rendered a beautiful violin selection and Mrs. G. Zeilman favored the audience with a message in song. Delegations from Saucertles, Cementon, West Camp and these present at the morning service, were present and added much to the meetings of the day. The Evangelist spent a busy day in meeting friends from previous campaigns, in large numbers. Mr. Muir preached a clear, stirring, gospel message on "Two Officers" while Mr. Kaufman rendered the beautiful gospel song, "Jesus' Oh How Sweet This Name." After the dedication had been pronounced the entire audience of 200 people, headed down to the shore of the noble Hudson, and with Mr. Kaufman leading sang "Swain" as gathered at the river. Jesus' Redeemer, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, called up. "Benedictus, I'll be there." Mrs. Ferro played an organ prelude to open the service of the evening. Fred Kaufman stepped into the pulpit and led the first song, "Let us sing a hymn to the Redeemer." The chorus of 45 voices in their places at every service of the day, sang songs of praise. A duet of two voices and a chorus were sung by Mrs. G. Zeilman and Mrs. C. Cook, and Mr. Cook gave another violin selection. "Largo," by Handel. After lunch, also sung several new delegations had arrived for the evening meetings, among them Cornsille and Quakerette. John Cornsille, a 35 year old man, arrived here and sang the hymn of "There is a Glad Day When Jesus Comes." Mr. Kaufman sang, "The Cross is Not Greater Than His Grace," and Evangelist Muir deliv-

CHAMBER MUSIC CONCERT NOV. 22

CAROLYN BEEBE.

On Monday evening, November 22, at 8:15 o'clock, the New York Chamber Music Society, reputed to be the finest organization of its kind in this country, will make its first appearance in this city at the High School Auditorium. The Senior class of the Kingston High School, which is promoting this concert expects that there will be a record-breaking crowd out that evening.

Carolyn Beebe, an artist of rare accomplishments, is the extraordinary woman pianist whose untiring and devoted efforts brought fruition to her dream of a unique body of ensemble players and brought the organization to its present high standing in the musical world.

Miss Beebe has assembled a remarkable organization. Each member is a soloist of great repute as well as an ensemble player of such skill as to make for perfection of unity. Unlike the small orchestra where the baton of the leader guides and interprets for all, in the harmoniousness of this unit of players there is readily discernible the individuality of each artist's expression. That is the secret of the beauty of chamber music after all; the revelation of the special design or pattern each instrument is weaving, compatible to the larger, bolder design of the work of a whole. In other words, it is a perfect blending.

The important and established place which the New York Chamber Music Society holds in the artistic world bespeaks the fact of their great success and likewise points to the great educational value of this unique and splendid organization. An unusually large public has given the endorsement of its pleasure in their real musical worth and these facts have been similarly attested to by the commendatory comment of the press.

Pierre Henrotte is the first violinist. He was born in Belgium; studied there and received first prize at Liege Royal Conservatoire. His work is well-known abroad, likewise here in America where he has held the post of concertmaster of the Metropolitan, Chicago and Boston Opera companies and of the official Symphony Orchestra at the San Francisco Exposition.

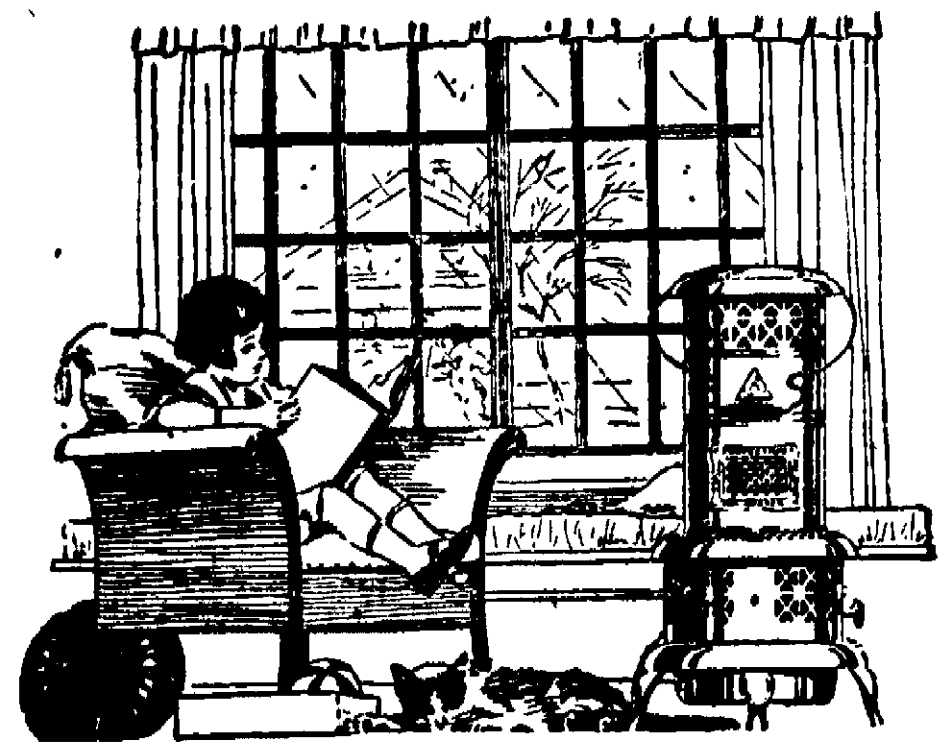

Many Kingstonians and others in this vicinity had the rare opportunity of hearing Mr. Henrotte last summer, as he was one of the artists who played at the concerts at the Maverick.

The tickets for the concert have already been placed on sale and may be obtained from any member of the Senior class or by mail order to Prof. C. W. Lewis at the high school. All seats will be reserved and are being placed on sale with the three prices ranging from one dollar to two dollars for the best seats in the auditorium. Tickets may be exchanged for reserved seats at the Y. M. C. A. The exchange of the tickets for the reserved seats will begin on Wednesday, November 17.

Frank B. Willis, a former governor of Ohio, and well known in state official matters, who has been elected to the United States senate to succeed President-elect Warren G. Harding.

Spread of Nothing in Europe.
Nothing came to Europe as one of the great results of the Crusades. The Knights of the Cross found battle in general were saving the Muslims, and seeing what good things they were, on returning from these wars took the initiative for their introduction. In this they were highly successful first in England and from that to other countries. So popular did the both become that it became customary to have one before companies such as marriage or baptism, and the people have been ever since leaving the habit of keeping their shoes clean.

Why Troco is the Fancy Brand

Three good reasons

It is made in a brand new plant, built to laboratory standards.

—From super-fine materials,

—By A. E. Hoffman, famous butter and milk expert.

For over 30 years Mr. Hoffman has made butter, judged butter and taught butter-making in leading dairy schools.

All his skill and knowledge, backed by every possible mechanical facility, are now devoted to producing perfected Troco.

All milk used in churning Troco comes from selected herds. It is twice pasteurized.

Pure, tasteless, odorless neutral fat, expressed from the whole meat of coconuts, is the base of Troco.

When this pure, appetizing vegetable fat is churned with pure, pasteurized milk in which the most delicate and sweetest butter flavor has been developed, the result is perfected Troco.

The quality of Troco is standardized by the method employed in the making. It is impossible to meet competition with cut prices. You may have to pay a few cents more to enjoy Troco.

Speedy Animals.

Two of the fastest of the smaller animals are the greyhound and the Jack rabbit. The greyhound can go at the rate of 30 miles an hour, while the rabbit, the fastest of all, can beat him by five miles and has much greater power of endurance. The greyhound, like the horse, dig in with his forefeet and drive his front legs for putting up with a position with his hind legs. The Jack rabbit's front legs are only crutches, but, like the antelope, he catches up to it by the power of his hind legs.

Or a "Distraction."

When a chessman moves into a better cell and sees the way to get over or under, he starts a few sharp yells and calls it a distraction.—Baltimore Sun.

Where They Came From.

The fig grows in the Mediterranean, the olive in Syria. The grape is native in western Europe, Algeria, Morocco and western Asia. The red currant grows wild all over Europe, in the Caucasus, the Himalayas, Manchuria, Japan and northern America. The walnut comes from the Caucasus, Persia and northern India. The sweet almond—originally in southern China and Cordia China. The olive is of India. —A.

Electric Light Plant—Perhaps.

A plant which is somewhat common in Brazil shows a remarkable luminosity which can be seen for a distance of a mile. Several small bits of these plants were introduced in its possible to read the print and to perform other operations which require a light.

The Fast Age.

"The world never moved so fast before," noted Mr. Thomson. "We have winter ice on the Fourth of July, spring vegetables on Christmas; we buy our straw hats in February and our felt hats in August; we get our Sunday paper on Saturday night, and our magazines a month ahead of time. If we telephone a man in San Francisco from New York, he hears our voice about four hours before we speak; and if some one in Japan sends us a cablegram tonight, we get it today."

And Tension.

Just Tension says the old-time newspaper who cut down and wrote out a newspaper with a pen wouldn't stand up chances whatever in these days of handwriting.

ORGANIZE TO CANVASS VOTE

Supervisors Meet At Noon Today
—Charles A. Schermerhorn, Chairman
Of Board of Canvassers—John Nock, Secretary.

The members of the board of supervisors met at their rooms at the court house at 12 o'clock noon today, according to the state election law, and organized as a board of canvassers. They were called to order by John N. Nock, chairman of the Ulster county board of elections, who, after stating the subject of the meeting, said the next order of business was the election of a chairman. J. Charles Snyder nominated Charles A. Schermerhorn for chairman, which was seconded and Mr. Schermerhorn was unanimously chosen, and Mr. Nock appointed John A. Fratcher and J. Charles Snyder to escort him to the chair. He was sworn in by Mr. Nock, and then Chairman Schermerhorn administered the oath to the members of the board present. Mr. Nock then took the oath as secretary.

After Chairman Schermerhorn thanked the members for the honor bestowed upon him by his election he facetiously said that "owing to the closeness of the vote at the election the greatest care must be exercised by the canvassers in having the count correct in order to prevent any question to arise as to a necessity for a recount."

On motion of Mr. Fratcher the chairman was empowered to name a committee of three on receiving the returns, a committee of three on examination of the returns, and a committee of three to read and tabulate the returns, a recess to be taken until 2 p. m., when the chair was to report the names of the committeemen.

On motion a recess was then taken until 2 p. m.

The county board of canvassers reconvened at 2 o'clock and after roll call Chairman Schermerhorn announced the appointment of the following committees:

Examining Returns — Heaton, Thompson, Shaw.
Reading Returns — Upright, Conklin, Wilkins.
Tabulating Returns — Schenck, Young and Schuler.

The returns were then handed in and it was found that the following districts were missing: Towns of Deane, Hardenburgh, Matinecock, part of Woodstock, Ulster, Rose, and the Fourth Ward of the city.

After the degree work refreshments will be served, and no doubt there will be a large attendance.

BLASTING TOP OFF
OLD BRIDGE PIER

The work of blasting the top off the concrete pier erected on the East side of the Rondout creek was started Monday by Contractor Michael. The pier was originally built before the present bridge plans were prepared. With the suspension type of bridge as proposed it has been necessary to remove four feet from the top of the pier.

Work on the bridge has not progressed as fast as expected since the cornerstone was laid, but Contractor Michael is using every effort to complete his end of the contract as quickly as possible. There has been some delay in the arrival of concrete and also of steel to be used in the construction.

Women Voted Before.

A reader of The Freeman asked the question Monday if women in any state had ever voted for president, and in the rush of work the query was thought to refer to this state only. As a matter of fact in a number of states that had woman suffrage women voted for president from the time equal suffrage was established. Each state was the judge of the qualifications of voters for president, subject to rights imposed by the constitution. In Wyoming, the first woman suffrage state, women have voted since 1869. In Colorado women have voted since 1893.

No Substantial Investment House Sells

securities on the strength of any individual personality, but rather on the basis of established facts, such as earnings statements, balance sheets, contracts, and the business standing of the management in general.

While we considered that it would no doubt be pleasing to Mr. Arthur McCausland's many friends in this community to note his connection with so large and successful a company, yet in publishing the complete list of officers and directors of the American Fuel Oil & Transportation Company, our purpose was to show the collective strength of the representative bankers and successful men of affairs constituting the management.

But The Particular Absurdity

of Saturday night's advertisement signed "Arthur McCausland, Secretary," lies in the fact that neither by statement or inference did we make any claim whatsoever as to being agents for the American Fuel Oil & Transportation Company or of being their representatives for the sale of their stock in this community—although the circumstances would fully have warranted our having done so.

There Are Various New York Bankers

and brokers participating in the sale of American Fuel Oil stock, by whom we have been solicited on a number of occasions to take over from them a commitment of this issue, which offers are still open, so we have not been, nor are we now in any sense dependent on the "direct authority" so erroneously disputed by Mr. Arthur McCausland, Sec'y, apparently for reasons of his own.

We consider the Shares of the American Fuel Oil & Transportation Company an excellent investment at the present subscription price, and will be glad to furnish descriptive circular prepared by the Company, on request.

We Are Making One Big Reduction and Only One
on All Our "High Grade Suits"

This Big Reduction in ready-to-wear garments usually takes place in January, but because of the mild fall season and the high prices we want to turn our stock into cash for Holiday Buying. Therefore we are going to sacrifice our stock and price our suits with one big reduction regardless of the loss to us, that you may buy a handsome suit at almost your own price.

It is needless to say anything about the quality of our merchandise as we sell only the best the market offers.

Below we quote you prices and description of each suit. Our prices are all marked in plain figures.
